"peace officer" means a member of any police service or the 1st Military Police Regiment of the 3rd Canadian Division.

Hon. FoxyTheWereFox: also, “1st Military Police Regiment” isn’t an entity
You mean “1 Military Police Regiment”
Motion to amend “1st Military Police Regiment” to “1 Military Police Regiment” and “Department of Defence” to “Department of National Defence”
Retracted
Motion to amend to strike the definition of peace officer and to change “Department of Defence” to “department of National Defence”

Hon. S3aWo1fz: Any seconds or objections to the above motion, @Member of the Legislative Assembly and @President of the Council?

Mr. @Cheif15092009 is given the floor for his statement.
Please advise me once you have finished your statement.

Mr. Cheif15092009: Good morning/afternoon Honorable Legislative Members,
Today, I come before you with a common goal: to assist with the building of a fun, productive and serious legal and clerical system.

I understand with the majority of you here today, we have had past differences, arguments maybe even a little bit of a scuffle here and there but, I ask you to hear my nomination speech with an open, kind and willing heart.

In any case, moving onto my clerical experience. I have numerous experiences including: the Federal Parliament of Australia (as speaker but also clerk), Queensland Magistrates Court (Chief Clerk) and Victoria State Parliament (as Premier). Using these experiences, I can show that I am experienced, willing and able to complete this job as Assistant Clerk.

However, there is ONE major issue with my qualifications, they are all based in Australia. This means, that I don't have experience of being a clerk in other countries such as America, Canada, or any other major countries. This is where you, Honorable MLA's can help me out!

I understand that people call me immature, maybe even stupid but a lot of people don't see the skill, technical work and logic of me.

If it is a concern of appointing me, mark my words, after two sessions, if the Legislative Assembly chooses to remove me, I will happily resign. I don't want to make anyone angry or concerned, I just want to make British Columbia a better place and a more organised place.

If you have any questions, I ask that you please send me a message and let me know your questions. I will happily respond.

Hoping to hear from you soon,
Cheif15092009
Nominee for Assistant Clerk

Mr. @hitaro_chan is given the floor for his statement.

Please advise me once you have finished your statement.

Mr. hitaro_chan: Good day, esteemed Honorable Legislative Members.

Today, I stand before you for your united shared mission.

To foster a vibrant, efficient, and reliable assembly that expresses the law.

You may ask,

Who is this Hitaro guy?

And what does he want to join our wonderful assembly?

Well, your answers have been answered. I implore you to approach my nomination speech with openness, kindness, and with my own words.

Hello everyone, I'm Hitaro, and while I don't often find myself making speeches, I wanted to share a bit about myself.

I've participated and lead various genres within Roblox, from military and government simulations to law enforcement and corporate ventures.

Recently, friend introduced me to the British Columbia group. Initially, I wasn't particularly interested, but upon joining, I was pleasantly surprised. The vibrant community with its parks, company advertisements, and provincial announcements, caught my attention.

As I explored further, I stumbled upon an opportunity within the Legislative Assembly. The role of assistant clerk seemed tailor-made for me, with requirements aligning perfectly with my skills in document creation using Google Docs, managing Trellos, and more.

Excited by the prospect, I reached out to the recruiter and expressed my interest in joining this esteemed assembly. And here I am today, eager to contribute to the humble yet dynamic community here in British Columbia.

Admittedly, I have only expressed my clerkship with other countries like the Philippines and the United Arab Emirates, lacking exposure in this country. Yet, I still view this as an opportunity for mutual growth and knowledge, with the support and guidance of this esteemed assembly.

I urge you to recognize the depth of my skills and logical prowess I can make, which can greatly contribute the development of the assembly or even the organization of British Columbia,

I thank this opportunity.

Hitaro_chan

Nominee for assistant Clerk.

I yield @S3aWo1fz
